

Work Permit Services

“Work Permits are a necessity in Vietnam for foreigners seeking to work. Without a Work Permit, the employer and employee face considerable risks.”

Domicile Corporate Services assist employers obtain Work Permits for their employees in Vietnam. The process is one that is constantly changing, but Work Permits are certainly achievable for the vast majority of foreign employees.

Tax Deductibility

Without a Work Permit, any payments to foreign employees are not tax deductible to the employer and are technically illegal. With a Work Permit, payments are deductible for Corporate Income Tax, reducing the company tax paid by the employer.

Bank Payments for Salary

With a Work Permit, employee salaries can be paid directly into employees bank accounts - in either Vietnam Dong or a nominated foreign currency. Employees can also later transfer funds earned to other countries should they choose.

Eligibility for Temporary Resident Cards for all family members

Employees with Work Permits, and their direct family members, are eligible for Temporary Resident Cards for the length of the Work Permit. This removes the need for Visas and Visa runs, and provides certainty to individuals and families.

Other Benefits

Work Permits also provide other benefits to employees and employers, including:

- The ability to own and register a motorbike or car in the employees name
- Removal of immigration and associated risks should an inspection of the employers offices occur.
